Principal's News

I'm really lucky because in my work environment, I am surrounded by people who affirm, reward and challenge me.

Early in the week I was delighted to see how well our older students responded to Brett Halter who worked with them in regard to On-line Protective Behaviour. The students paid attention, evaluated what they personally were doing on-line, talked to their parents about it, and where necessary, made some decisions to change their behaviour.

On Tuesday night a good number of parents took the opportunity to discuss this issue further with Brett. These parents recognised that if they were to be relevant to their children, they too needed to learn about online behaviour, so that they could usefully advise and direct their children. These parents were busy, and probably already pretty well informed, but they made the time, and like me, they learned from it.

The Year Five students have been absolutely outstanding on camp. Their attitude, courtesy, courage and discipline have really impressed me. They should be very proud of themselves, and they are certainly a great credit to their parents and teachers. Clearly together, we're doing something right, and I'm very grateful to Mr Plumb, Mrs Hammermeister and Miss McCarthy whose generosity afforded our children this fantastic opportunity.

Early on Thursday morning, Mr Plumb asked one of our students how he was feeling after his first night on Camp. He answered, "I'm feeling brand new!"

What a fabulous answer. After a day of challenging himself emotionally and physically, and a good night's sleep – this young man felt 'new'. I love it when students glimpse their own potential and see what they are capable of. It's great to see so many embrace the type of opportunity that only experiences like Outdoor Activities can offer.

I do regret that I couldn't be there for Fathers' Day liturgy this morning. However I do know how hard Year Two teachers and students with Mrs Cook have worked, and I do know that a large number of Dads and Granddads will make the time to celebrate with us. This too is just remarkable, and I thank you all for your support.

School Banking News

Due to popular demand, Commonwealth Bank have exhausted all stock of the FLYING SNAKE TAIL, MUD SPLAT BALL and WILDLIFE WRITER SET and will no longer be available to order.

Optiminds News

A huge congratulations to our Optiminds Teams who competed in the Regional Finals last weekend. We are very proud of all the work they put into preparing for their challenges and the way they represented St Patrick's school. Thank you to Mr Woodland and Mrs Whan for all of their time and support. Two of our teams received special awards. Congratulations to the Smart Cookiez who received a distinction award and the Dramatic Unicorns who won first place!

Our winning team, the Dramatic Unicorns, are now eligible to attend the State Finals being held in Brisbane later this year.
