PRINCIPAL'S NEWS

8th June 2018

This week the Year One class who led prayer finished each day with a song entitled, "What's the surprise you've got for me today God?" and it was cool.

I think as adults, most of us probably worry more than a little, about what God may surprise us with next. I know I do. However if we take a moment and look at life through the eyes of a Year One student, God does indeed surprise us with new things every day.

Every day is new and exciting for them. They delight in each new story their teacher reads. They create works of art and stories that have never ever existed before. They invent and play games in a unique fashion that makes complete sense to all involved. They find new friends, new bugs in the playground and ways of turning sticks and leaves under a tree into a magical, fairy garden. In classrooms and out, they surprise themselves with what they can learn and accomplish. I myself am still incredibly surprised that Year One students can stand in front of 500 assembled parents, students and teachers and read, sing and perform with confidence.

We can all learn from Year One. Embracing the challenges and surprises that life brings, really is the only way to live. It allows us to find the fun, excitement and satisfaction that abounds each day and it helps us to grow into our best selves.
